

HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT THE PGA'S NEW GROUP MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES?

WHAT IS THE BUSINESS MANAGEMENT GROUP?

The Business Management Group (BMG) has been created by The PGA to bring the golf industry together and enable those who work in golf to receive training and networking opportunities under the umbrella of a single professional body - The PGA.

WHO IS IT FOR?

BMG is for everyone who works in golf, whether they're involved in golf clubs, hotels, travel, retail, equipment or any other golf business sector.

WHY JOIN BMG?

NETWORKING, EVENTS & BENEFITS
Attend regional and national events, including golf days and breakfast.

COMMUNICATIONS & SUPPORT
Annual subscription to The PGA's exclusive new quarterly industry magazine and so much more...

RESOURCES & LEARNING
World-class educational content through The PGA's digital CPD platform.

MORE INFO
Contact kristian.wright@pga.org.uk, call 07500 104961 or visit www.pga.info/bmg to find out more.

WHAT IS CLUB VOLUNTEER BY THE PGA?

The Club Volunteer (CV) group is for all those people who do so much to support the running of their clubs. This group will empower golf's volunteers and enable them to do their jobs more effectively, helping them acquire new knowledge and skills relevant to the golf industry.

WHY JOIN CV?

NETWORKING, EVENTS & BENEFITS
Attend regional and national networking events and access a whole suite of exclusive benefits.

RESOURCES & LEARNING
World-class educational content through The PGA's digital CPD platform.

COMMUNICATIONS & SUPPORT
Opportunity to join The PGA's new online communities and special interest forums.

WHO IS IT FOR?

Club Volunteer by PGA is for anyone involved in the game at grass roots level who gives up their time for free. In the same way that the contributions of Governors are critical to the smooth running of schools, golf club volunteers are at the heart of the game.

Potential members could include anyone from the following roles:

- Committee member
- Board member
- Junior organiser
- Marketing coordinator
